Entered as second class matter April 21, 1911 at the post office at Estancia, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The next move before Estancians is the Grand Celebration on July Fourth. Our people can't afford to do things by half. The businessmen have given generously to provide funds for the occasion, and there is no reason why we should not have a booster celebration. Let no one think the committees are to do the rest of the work. There is work enough for the committees and everyone else. Attend the meeting tonight, put your shoulder to the wheel and boost. "If you can't push, pull; if you can't pull, get out the way."

On Tuesday the Grays and the Blues forgot that there had been bitterness between them, forgot the days of suffering and starvation, and joined hands in the decorating of the graves of the comrades who have answered the last roll-call. This is as it should be. There is no longer a "north" and a "south" There is one united country, one united people. On the streets one lady was heard to remark "no one has put up a southern flag. There are only Yankee flags to be seen." She had evidently forgotten that there was no longer a Yankee flag, but a Union Flag. Had some one thought to have provided the "Stars and Bars" it would have been interesting as possibly a number of our younger people have never seen the flag of the Confederacy. For today there is one flag and one nation—not two.
